

Ander Gunn

Since the 50's Ander Gunn has taken black and white photographs with an analogue camera and developed his own prints. He started in London photographing actors and authors including his poet brother Thom Gunn. He moved to Cornwall in the 60s, where he photographed many of the well known artists living there at that time such as Wilhelmina Barns-Graham, Patrick Heron, Roger Hilton, Rose Hilton and Karl Weschke. He has lived in Cornwall on and off ever since, photographing miners, artists, landscape and the sea.
