

Sarah Drew B.A.(Hons)

Communication Studies (2:1)

Varied cultural Studies degree: media, linguistics, sociology and psychology.

Art Jewellery practice/business, successfully trading for 22 years

Exhibits regularly at the Contemporary Craft Festival in Bovey Tracey; Desire Fair, Winchester and Top Drawer trade show in London.

Exhibited at the Milan Jewelry week October 2022 and Autor in Bucharest May 2023.

Exhibitions:

Perspectives: * 8 Holland Street, Kensington with Petronilla Silver

TIDES: Penwith Gallery

Scrap Merchants Live: @Work gallery

AUTOR art jewellery fair, Bucharest

STRATA exhibition touring to Royal Cornwall Museum, Truro Jan 2023

Under the Tree exhibition at MAKE South West, Bovey Tracey Nov 2022

STRATA exhibition at Tremenheere Sculpture Gardens, Penzance Nov 2022

Artistar Jewels at Milano Jewelry week October 2022

Art residency at Bedruthan Hotel, Aug 2022

Tidepool summer exhibition at Aspex Portsmouth, July-Aug 2022

A Rubbish Exhibition at The Workhouse Chapel, July 2022

Contemporary Craft Festival at Bovey Tracey June 2022

Degrees at the Royal Cornwall Museum, Feb/March 2022

Germination at Tremenheere Sculpture Gardens, Penzance Nov 2021

Rambling Summer exhibition at Craft Leeds July-Sept 2021

Earth Matters at West Dean College, Chichester 2020

Tides at Circa 21, Penzance 2019

Erosion at Tremenheere Sculpture Gardens, Penzance 2019

Treasure Found Farnham Pottery 2017 (solo show)

Petronilla Silver Summer show 2017

Publications and memberships:

3 jewellery-making books published:

'Junk-box Jewellery'

'Wild Jewellery'

'Hair Accessories'

Written articles for 'Making Jewellery', 'Wed' magazine and 'Cornwall Today'

Published illustrated Cornish Folktale 'The Woodsprite' 2020

Member of Society of Designer Craftsmen since 2022

Member of MAKE Southwest since 2023